Celebrating 163 Years of Regattas on Port Esperance

Huon Aquaculture

2022 DOVER REGATTA

NOTICE OF RACE

The Huon Aquaculture 2022 Dover Regatta will be conducted in D'Entrecasteaux Channel and on Port Esperance by the Port Esperance Sailing Club from Friday 15th April to Sunday 17th April 2022.

The regatta consists of three series of races: for racing keelboats, for cruising keelboats, and for off-the-beach yachts. It includes the William Jackson Memorial Cup for keelboats, B.K Price Trophy for off-the-beach yachts, and Noel Doepel Memorial Trophy for classic boats

1. Rules

The regatta will be governed by the current rules as defined in the 2021-24 Racing Rules of Sailing, the Special Regulations of Yachting Australia, the rules of the relevant classes, and by the Sailing Instructions.

The 2021-24 Racing Rules of Sailing and the Special Regulations apply from 1st January 2021 and can be downloaded from the Australian Sailing website: <https://www.sailingresources.org.au/rrs-special-regs/>

2. Eligibility and Entry

- 2.1 The regatta is open to all mono-hull and multihull keel boats, sports-boats and trailable yachts. Off-the-beach events are open to all dinghies and catamarans holding a Yachting Victoria yardstick. Special entry requirements apply to various events – see Section 12: Special Rules.
- 2.2 Entry forms are available at the Port Esperance Sailing Club website www.pesc.com.au. Eligible boats can enter by emailing a completed entry form to commodore@pesc.com.au by 2000 hours on Tuesday 12th April 2022. Entry fee payment options are given on the entry form. Late entries made in person to the Event Manager may be accepted up to two hours prior to the start of the series or race. However, early entries are encouraged to allow time for allocation of appropriate handicaps.
- 2.3 Entrants in the off-the-beach yardstick series may also enter a one design division. Dinghies wishing to participate as a one design fleet must attract a minimum of five entrants and can make a request to race as a one design fleet to the Regatta Race Committee

It is the responsibility of the owner/skipper to ensure compliance with this category. Safety spot checks may be made. Boats not complying may be disqualified. Off-the-Beach classes should comply with the relevant YA safety requirements.

6. Sailing Instructions

The Sailing Instructions will be available on the club's website www.pesc.com.au no later than Tuesday 12th April 2022. Sailing Instructions will be emailed to all entrants who have entered prior to Friday 15th April 2022.

7. Regatta Site and Racing Area

The regatta site is the green behind Dover Beach (on the south side of the rivulet) , and the racing area is D'Entrecasteaux Channel and in Port Esperance (see Appendix A).

8. Courses

- 8.1 The course for the Kettering to Dover race is a passage race in D'Entrecasteaux Channel from Kettering to Port Esperance, finishing off the Dover Jetty.
- 8.2 Courses for the keelboat classes on Saturday 16th April 2022 will be in the southern part of D'Entrecasteaux Channel in the vicinity of Port Esperance as described in the Sailing Instructions.
- 8.3 Courses for the keelboat classes on Sunday 17th April 2022 will be around the buoys in Port Esperance as indicated in Appendix A and described in the Sailing Instructions.
- 8.4 Off-the-beach races will have triangular and/or windward-leeward courses in Port Esperance as described in the Sailing Instructions.

9. Scoring

For all series the Low Point scoring system will apply (RRS Appendix A4). No race will be dropped. See also section 12 (Special Rules) below.

10. Radio Communications

Communication with keelboat competitors will be by radio on VHF-10.

11. Prizes

- 11.1 There will be prizes for the winners of each of the races and for the keelboat racing and cruising series, the off-the-beach series. Sponsorship permitting, there may also be prizes for placegetters.
- 11.2 There will be prizes for winners of one-design divisions (should there be any) racing in the off-the-beach series.
- 11.3 The winner of the Franklin Marine William Jackson Cup Race on corrected time will be awarded the William Jackson Memorial Cup.
- 11.4 The winner of the B.K.Price Trophy race on corrected time will be awarded the B.K.Price Memorial Trophy.
- 11.5 The winner of the Driftwood Cottages Noel Doepel Memorial Trophy Race for Classic Boats will be awarded the Noel Doepel Memorial Trophy.

12. Special Rules

- 12.1 Driftwood Cottages Noel Doepel Memorial Race for Classic boats is in memory of the late Noel Doepel, longtime supporter of the Dover Regatta and champion of classic boats. This race is open to classic and vintage boats. The race committee reserves the right to allocate a boat to a different division if it is believed its design does not fit the spirit of this event. This race will be conducted with an arbitrary handicap. (There will be a briefing for those unfamiliar with Racing Rules of Sailing – see section 4.)
- 12.2 For the Kettering to Dover Race, a handicap allowance will be made for boats towing a dinghy.
